Divided into 21 categories, ranging from All-Stars New Business to All-Star Innovative Business, the line up reflects the diverse stages of development and vertical specialisation of Irish companies.

All-Stars

Winners in each category are designated with All-Star status and as such represent the highest current performance level in Irish business, and are presented as a standard or benchmark to be equaled or exceeded.

All-Star title holders will have proven through a rigorous judging process, to be on merit, worthy recipients of the accolade.
